A Sample of Stars in the 2016-2017 Staller Center Season – Presale starts May 1

April 19, 2016, Stony Brook, NY – The renowned violinist Itzhak Perlman; Kelli O'Hara, Tony Award winner for The King and I; the nine-time Grammy winners Emerson String Quartet; the Martha Graham Dance Company, America's oldest dance company; and 2015 Grammy Award winner Cécile McLorin Salvant are among the many stars of the 2016-2017 Staller Center Season. Ticket presale begins May 1st for upcoming performances at Staller Center for the Arts at Stony Brook University.

Former patrons have been mailed a season brochure that includes an order form for buying tickets, or they can buy online at stallercenter.com. The Staller Center Box Office at (631) 632-ARTS [2787] takes ticket orders and helps answer questions. The Box Office is also open for over-the-counter sales Monday to Saturday, 12:00 noon to 6:00 pm and one hour before performances, and will be open on Sunday, May 1 from 12:00 noon to 6:00 pm for presale orders.

What's Coming

Alan Inkles, director of Staller Center, looks forward to welcoming entertainers from around the world. "The mix this season includes everything from an Agatha Christie play, Murder on the Nile by Aquila Theatre, to an entertaining cirque show that features cooking and acrobatics, 'Cuisine & Confessions' by 7 Fingers of the Hand, the group that was featured in Broadway's recent production of Pippin." Notes Mr. Inkles, "For preferred seating in 2016-17 we suggest buying tickets early. Deep discounts are available when buying multiple shows. Prices to Staller Center performances are already very reasonable, so we hope people will take advantage and come out often to Staller Center."
